

The Financial Initiative: Letter of Advocacy Template

Dear Honorable [Name of primary legislator, author, or committee chair] and Members of the [Legislative Body, e.g., California State Legislature or specific committee],

On behalf of [Your Organization's Name], I am writing to express our strong support for [Bill Name/Number], which [briefly explain the primary goal or action of the bill in 1-2 sentences].

[Your Organization's Name] is a [brief description of your organization, e.g., locally based / internationally affiliated nonprofit organization] dedicated to [your organization's core mission]. To the [target demographic or community you serve], [explain why your cause is critical to them—e.g., time is the single greatest edge they possess]. Whether it is [Example of impact 1], [Example of impact 2], or [Example of impact 3], [summarize the overarching benefit of your work/cause].

We proudly support [Bill Name/Number] because of its direct alignment with our mission. While [acknowledge the current status quo, existing laws, or partial solutions], [explain the gap or problem that still exists]. By [explain how the bill addresses this gap], [target group/students/community] are given the necessary tools to [positive outcome of the bill].

Furthermore, by [mention a secondary feature or benefit of the bill], [Bill Name/Number] removes the friction [stakeholders, e.g., schools, communities] would otherwise face. It empowers them to treat [the core issue] with the weight it deserves, providing a more robust framework to [long-term impact of the bill].

For these reasons, [Your Organization's Name] is proud to support [Bill Name/Number] and respectfully requests your "Aye" vote as this vital bill moves through the legislative process.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
